LOCATION

Alvechurch is a large village in the Bromsgrove district of north-east Worcestershire. The village is located in very pleasant rural surroundings approximately 11 miles south of Birmingham, 5 miles north of Redditch and 6 miles east of Bromsgrove. The property is located on the main road in the village centre close to the local facilities and adjoining the Swan Inn.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises an attractive mid-terrace period cottage that stands above the level of Swan Street with a raised pedestrian walkway to the front and is in the Alvechurch Conservation Area. Constructed of two storey brick under a pitched tile roof there is a more modern single flat roof rear extension. Standing on a virtually fully developed site there is a small outside area to the side with a raised escape walkway above.
