LOCATION

The Red Lion is located within the centre of the sought after Staffordshire village of Bradley, adjoining the Parish Church of St Mary's and All Saints and close to the Village Hall. Stafford is some 4½ miles to the north east and Penkridge circa 3 miles to the south east and there are a number of similar villages in the immediate vicinity including Haughton and Gnosall. Access to J12 & J13 of the M6 Motorway is close by and the Red Lion benefits from a good drive out location from Stafford and area, Cannock and Newport.

DESCRIPTION

The property is an attractive well invested Grade II listed timber framed quintessential English village pub originally dating back to 17th Century with colour washed brick elevations and pitched tiled roofs.

The public house benefits from a 25 space car park and well laid out and landscaped beer patio/garden. In addition, a recently constructed timber framed barn offers dry stores, freezers, staff welfare and bin stores. The site area is 0.467 acres and footprint 4387sq. ft. (Source Nimbus Maps).

ACCOMMODATION

Ground Floor

Internally the main bar, which provides seating for circa 60 customers, has been excellently refurbished by the current owners and has an attractive oak and glazed entrance from the car park. There is a similarly well decorated and presented 50 cover restaurant adjoining. The trading areas feature a variety of ceiling beams, timber flooring and exposed stone walls. Back of house includes a generous size and fully fitted catering kitchen, wash up and prep areas, together with ladies, gentlemen's and assisted customer lavatories. A recently constructed barn offers dry stores, freezers, staff welfare and bin stores. The upland beer cellar is to the rear of the servery.

First Floor

At first floor the living accommodation comprises 3 bedrooms, lounge/bedroom, bathroom, kitchen and former bathroom awaiting fit out. The living accommodation is capable of sub division to create an owners/managers flat and also staff live in flat/bedsit.

Outside

Surfaced and white lined car park for 25 vehicles, landscaped beer patio and garden.
