Location

The Crown is located in the heart of the well populated Potteries village of Silverdale at the junction of Crown Street and Brook Street adjoining the park, tennis court and bowling green and in the midst of a well populated immediate catchment.

There is a small retail parade within 200 yards. Newcastle Under Lyme lies within 2 miles to the west.

Description

The property has been completely refurbished to an excellent standard and comprises an attractive two storey mainly brick building beneath a range of pitched slated roofs with similar two and single storey extensions to the side and rear.

In addition, there is a large well laid out external beer patio courtyard trading area which partly incorporates the former Bowling Alley.

Accommodation

The property has been excellently refurbished to a very high quality and comprises a traditional two room bar and lounge operation.

The public bar comprises quarry tile flooring, leatherette perimeter fixed seating, brick chimney breast with wood burner, timber panelling and timber topped and panelled servery and includes an adjoining games area with pool table and darts throw. In total there is seating for some 40 customers.

The lounge bar is of a similar standard with part tiled, part oak flooring, light stained wood panelling and servery, seating for some 40 customers and double doors leading out to the beer patio.

A small catering kitchen adjoins. The ladies and gentlemen's customer lavatories are accessible from a rear lobby.

The living accommodation is arranged at first floor level comprising a large flat, including three double bedrooms, lounge, domestic kitchen, bathroom separate lavatory and office.

The beer cellar, bottle and general stores are located in the basement.

The external trading area has been well developed to comprise a large partly covered brick paved beer patio. There is also an additional beer patio directly to the rear of the pub.

Tenure

The property is freehold with the benefit of vacant possession.
