Town Centre/Lakeside Pub & Development Opportunity

Key Features

- Substantial Town Centre/Lakeside Pub and development site
- Prominent Promenade position overlooking Marine Lake and the proposed £73m Marine Lake Events Centre, opening April 2027.
- Open plan ground floor trading area of circa 4000sf gross.
- Extensive first and second floor accommodation
- Potential for mixed Pub and Residential scheme or for wholesale conversion to Flats/HMO or quasi care, assisted living use.

Location

The Victoria is situated on the Promenade overlooking Marine Lake, a short distance from the coast and on the edge of Southport town centre. The property lies directly opposite the Waterfront Hotel and the site of the proposed Marine Lake Events Centre, which has a budgeted cost of £73m, and is due to open in April 2027. Various tourist attractions are close by such as Silcocks Funland & Pier, Southport Pleasure Land, Kings Garden and Princes Park (both opposite) and Ocean Plaza Leisure Centre. The properties immediately adjoining the site comprise in the main low-rise flats, HMO's and traditional terraced / semi-detached properties. The main retail street in the town centre, Lord Street, is within a quarter of a mile to the east.

Description

The public house is a substantial Victorian three storey brick building beneath pitched slated roofs with various extensions to the rear. The property was originally two buildings, which have been 'knocked' together and are still held under two titles. To the front there is a beer patio area and a driveway / pull in providing car parking for two vehicles.
